Truth is to be given Freely

Some have wondered why I have done all this work and expect no financial return. Others have said I must be a socialist because a true capitalist does nothing unless monetary payback is involved.

First of all anyone that knows me realizes I am not a socialist. Socialism does not mean helping others, socialism is all about extracting from others to give to those who will not earn it.

However, capitalism is also not a virtue, I have seen my entire life how people have used and abused others to gain for themselves. It is all about the ‘ME’ syndrome. However, when you think about it, isn’t that what socialism really is. All about ME.

I do not consider myself capitalist either although there is greater tone of awareness that reveals certain key protocols about working hard and earning from your labor. It also teaches reward by merit.

When it comes to the outcome of Capitalism versus Socialism the big difference is, capitalists usually take from the sucker, in socialism, everyone becomes the sucker by fiat.

My belief is simple, when you charge for anything there must be responsibility to the buyer. They must receive what it is they need and desire. If you cannot give that to them then they are being coned out of their money.

When you deal with a spiritual work like what I have given freely, I am not subjected to the whim of the buyers. I do not feel any responsibility at all as to whether they are getting what they want and desire. That is not my problem, since this was a gift, without any strings attached.

Nevertheless, when you sell a spiritual work, there is always compromise. When financial security is at stake, you cannot afford to lose your buyers, therefore many have compromised their work to appease their buyers.

The Father taught me not to sell this work simply because otherwise I would be compromised. And that is the way it should be, if someone puts their hard earned money out they should get what they want. And if the product does not stand up, then the seller should take responsibility.

I have lived my entire life without much money, I guess in a sense I was trained.
I learned to live without so that I could give away a powerful work freely. I have seen what my books have done.

Just on Amazon alone when I had the books in soft cover, I could have made a lot of money even for slightly more profit. Now some would say, isn’t that selling your work.

In a sense it is, but it was done for the sake of certain readers. Some will not read books if they cannot hold them in their hands. I understand that so I made an allowance that the books could be sold at Market cost and that I would not receive compensation.

Again, I was still not earning any money, not even a penny. Yet if I had placed a market value on these books where I earned profits I would have already made a killing. I was true to my word, I will not sell this work.

This work is entirely free both audio and textual, there is no need to buy it except for those who had to have it in book form, and that was entirely their choice, not mine.

There are many other reasons also that I have not sold this work for profit.
Many who have done so in the past, have lost their work to con artists and other criminal types as they stole the work and sold it for themselves.

Since this work is free, a con artist would be hard pressed to make a dime when the same work is being given away freely. So it takes away that temptation for the dark ones to fleece.

Also since there is no compromise I tell it as it is, and few would want to attach themselves to the same work.

The simple fact of the matter is, I am under no boundary or parameter to provide what people want, I give them what they need, and if they do not like it, then they can walk away, without cost, no one to blame.
It makes it equal for all. Whether you agree or disagree it cost the same price, FREE.

And lastly, my work is only for the true children. What this means is, they already have this installed within their spirit, all they need to do is awaken to grasp what it is that already belongs to them. Now how could I sell something that you already own but misplaced it in your spiritual attic?

Addendum: Understand, I am not against earning money, especially via entrepreneurial efforts. I am all for it. If you have a product or anything of value, then enjoy and make great profit.
